'Wine Windows' were a hit during the plague and are better than ever (19 Photos)

1

Our priorities have all shifted a bit during this super fun pandemic, but one thing that remains important as ever is booze.

Esattamente un anno fa abbiamo messo la targa di Buchetta del Vino in un posto veramente speciale a Firenze.

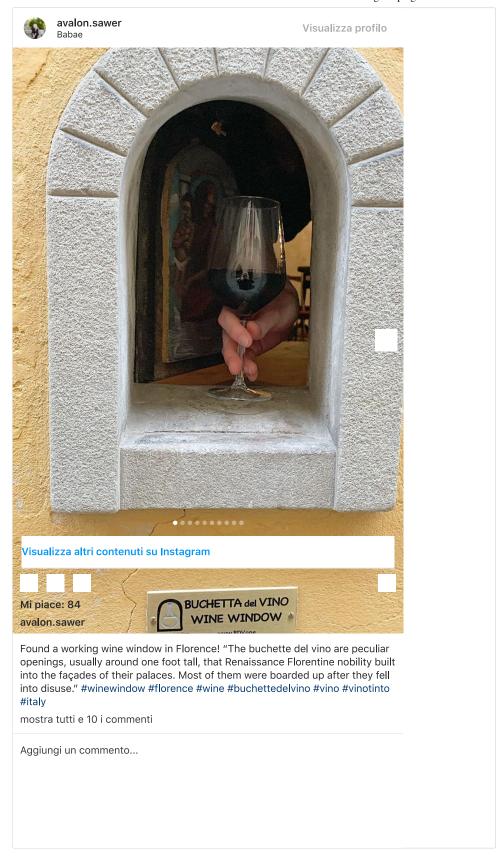

Grazie agli amici di Babae infatti la buchetta del loro locale ha ritrovato una nuova vita 🎠 🝷 @winedoorsflorence @buchettedelvino #urbanphotography #urbanart #urbanstreetphotogallery #architecturephotography #archidaily #amazingarchitecture #cartoline_italiane #firenzetoday #repfigram #adayinflorence #theflorentine #winetime #wineoclock #wineoftheday #winelovers #winetour #winetravel #doors #doorsofinstagram #doorsofitaly #doorsandwindows_greatshots #arte

But with social distancing and all the restrictions the hospitality industry faces businesses are having to find new ways to get their patrons buzzed.

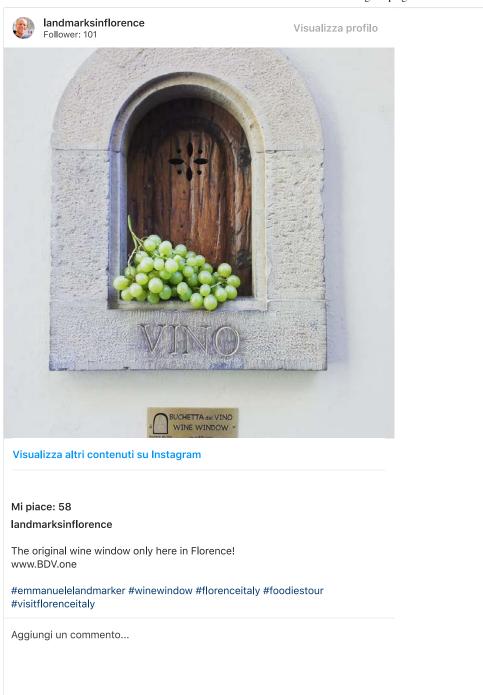

Enter the Wine Window, a practice that dates back to the plague-produced pandemics of the 17th century.

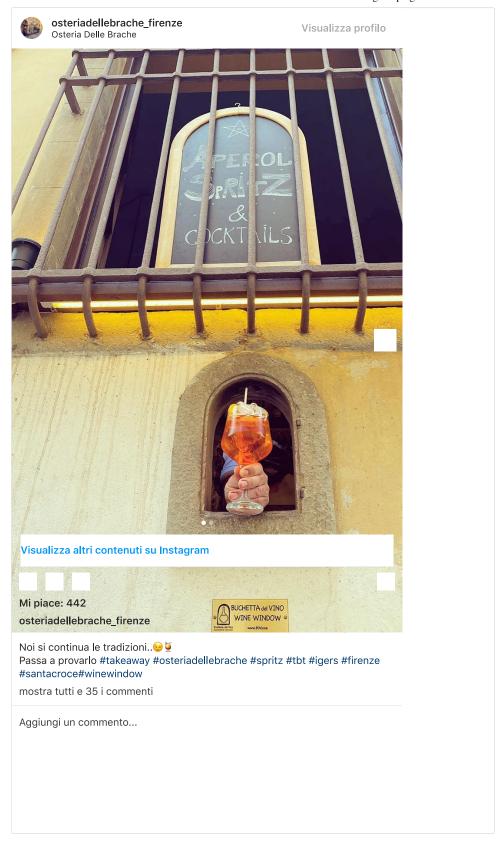

The original purpose is as simple as it seems: a socially distant way to serve wine to customers. Basically, it was the original drive-thru window.

There's a cultural association called Buchette Del Vino that maps them all out and in general has all the information you'd ever want to know about wine windows.

And since you can't drink wine all the time, people have branched out with different cocktails, drinks and even ice-cream.

Una grande novità è in arrivo! Dopo secoli di inattività, da Babae riapriremo una delle storiche Buchette del Vino, i tabernacoli da cui le grandi Famiglie Fiorentine sin dal Cinquecento servivano bicchieri di vino ai viandanti. Vi aspettiamo quindi ogni sera dalle 19 alle 20 in Via Santo Spirito 21r per "L'ora della Buchetta"! ₹#babaefirenze
